

Bobbie Cathleen Voss

September 24, 1969 - April 12, 2026

Bobbie Cathleen Voss was born September 24, 1969, passed away at Ohio health Mansfield Sunday April 12, 2026. She was surrounded by family and friends who witnessed her honor walk. Her gift of life, through organ donation, brings peace to her family who know she will live on.

Bobbie loved being outdoor or on the water. She found peace in driving back roads and listening to music. She had a gypsy spirit and a heart as big as the world she loved to explore. She was a collector of memories. Bobbie never met a stranger and welcomed everyone into her tribe. She prided herself in her resilience.

She leaves behind her husband William (Joey) Voss. brothers, James (Jessica) Muddiman Jr and Scott (Stacia) Muddiman. Her daughters, Samantha Voss and her children, Fayth and Hunter and Amanda Voss and her children, Calab, Laila and Madlynn Jo; a host of relatives and friends,

She was preceded in death by her father James Muddiman Sr, Mother Margaret Muddiman, and her cherished daughter Brandi Mae and grandson William.

She also leaves behind her dearest friends Rhonda Platt, Paul Baummer, Nate Roy and his sisters, Rachael (Harley) Roy-Heston and Angel (Jerry)

Roy- McFarland, Joyce Ormes, Leslie Osborne and her brothers, Sean Osborne and Jared (Makenzi) Williams.

No services will be held. A celebration of life will be at a later date. Anyone wishing to donate to her final expenses may contact Amanda Voss or Rachael Roy.

The family has entrusted Small's Funeral Services with the arrangements.
