“ Our condolences to all Brenda's family and friends. She was my coworker and friend at the Richland County Veterans Service Commission. We enjoyed her professionalism and dedication to our mission of servicing veterans. She spoke often of her family and their good times together. She always brought a smile and enjoyment to our tasks and times together functioning as a team. Her sense of humor and wit was appreciated and enjoyed by all. Our prayers now for this loss to her friends and family.

My deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. I go back with the Morris sisters to grade school and 2nd St.! The Williams sisters were happy to have someone shorter than us!! Brenda will be remembered for her big smile and laughter. Never saw her mad and was always on the move with purpose. RIP
