

Charles Allen McMillen

October 7, 1948 - June 12, 2019

Bellville: Charles Allen McMillen, 70, passed away June 12, 2019 at home after a long battle with cancer. He was born October 7, 1948, in Detroit, MI, to Charles Harvey and Freda Ramondia (Cains) McMillen.

As a child, Charles learned to play the harmonica and accordion. His love of music grew with age and he learned to play several different instruments. He was best known for his harmonica talents, playing with great musicians such as The Doobie Brothers, Jeff Baxter, Muddy Waters and local bands like The Blues Brothers and Gene Frontz and The Fire Birds just to name a few.

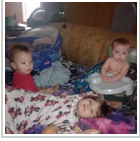

Charles had an accomplished career with Intel, traveling in the U.S. and abroad. Although he lived in Michigan and Ohio, Arizona is where he called home for most of his adult life. He was loved by many and will be missed dearly.

He is survived by his three children, Scott (Sherry) McMillen of Ottumwa, Iowa, Teri (Tim) Johnson of Ashland, and Buffy (Luke) Smith of Bellville; five grandchildren and seven great grandchildren. He also leaves behind a loving family (The Richardson's) in Arizona.

Charles was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Laureen McMillen; his grandchild, Caleb McMillen.

Heaven gained another musician for the Heavenly Choir the day God took him home.

Tribute Wall

“ Buffy you and Luke did great by him he was will loved and taking great care of proud of both of you love always your sis starla ”

Starla Smith - June 16, 2019 at 12:31 PM

BU

“ I love you Dad ”

buffy - June 14, 2019 at 01:03 PM

Great pic

Starla Smith - June 16, 2019 at 12:32 PM