

Dallas Burian Ray

February 9, 1949 - April 27, 2020

Mansfield: Dallas Burian Ray, 71, passed away Monday, April 27, 2020, at home after an extended illness.

Dallas was born February 9, 1949, in Swords Creek, VA, to the late Roby Ray and Molly Hess-Ray.

He enjoyed fishing, camping, listening to Elvis Presley, was a diehard Pittsburgh Steeler fan and loved spending time with his granddaughter Kaylee. She was his “pumpkin” they had a special bond.

He leaves to cherish in his memory his daughter, Mary (Daniel) Barber, of Mansfield; granddaughter, Kaylee Barber, of Mansfield; a host of relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his late wife, Brenda Ray; brothers, Terry, Curtis, Jim and Don; sisters, Bonnie, Evelyn and Betty.

A special thanks to everyone for being there for us in these trying times.

The family has entrusted Small’s Funeral Services with the arrangements.

Tribute Wall

LL

“ I will miss talking to Dallas, whether it was Walmart or Meijer we would always run into each other there. I'll miss seeing him In our neighborhood stopping to chat, and I'll miss seeing him drive his beloved granddaughter on his Riding mower through the neighborhood. He was kind man and I'll miss him 💔 condolences to the family rest in heaven Dallas, we will always remember you

Laura Lester - April 28, 2020 at 06:11 PM

BD

“ Bonnie Dickerson lit a candle in memory of Dallas Burian Ray

Bonnie Dickerson - April 28, 2020 at 03:49 PM

BO

“ Rip Dallas hug Brenda for me n ur momma , you both was such good neighbors an friends for as far back as I can remember <3 you will be sadly missed fly high

Brenda Olar-Zimmerman - April 28, 2020 at 12:36 PM