I was close with Jenny in high school. She was funny outgoing and crazy. She made me laugh and showed me how to have a great time. I played soccer with her and she had incredible speed. I think she talked just as fast as she ran. This is sad news to me and I hope she flies high in the heavenly kingdom love you Jenny Craig

“ Me and Jen used to be the best of friends. We were the "Jens" she was an amazing mom to Gavin and a funny, awesome person and friend. She was there for me when I had my daughter and loved watching her. We had the best times together whether it was working together, hanging out, swimming in the pool. We had fun at everything we did. We were inseparable. I wish I would have reached out after we drifted apart. Life is so short and so precious. Rest easy Jen. U will be missed!

“ You were absolutely one of the most genuine people i have ever had the pleasure of working for me & becoming my friend also. I am at such a blank place right now knowing you & i won't get to talk & spend more quality times together. You had built a huge network of friends & extended family @ Park Lanes with your special smile & personality, life will never be the same without you in it Jenny. I & those people that were in your life will never forget the warmth & kindness you showed towards all you came in contact with. This just doesn;t even seem possible. R.I.P. Jenny you were a unique woman & mother

“ Me and Jenny got close around 8th grade and then through high school. Me, Jenny, and Pam would have the best times goofing around, laughing, and playing soccer. She was a very fast runner and fast talker. She loved to make you laugh and be crazy. I had some of the best times of my life running around with those two girls.
