“ Our condolences to Kim's family and loved ones, you're all in our thoughts and prayers. I am so shocked and heartbroken to hear that my very dear friend is gone, she and I met in 1977 at the YWCA where we were working at that time, we became very good friends our friendship remained all these years, we were always close, and even though I relocated, whenever I would come to visit we would try to get together and catch up. But for these past few years I haven't been able to come to like I use to.
