“ To my friend whom I had known since we were little and on Grant Street. Our parents knew each other and we shared the same Birthday. We would always call each other to wish each other happy Birthday. We would talk on the phone and when I was ever in town I would stop by and we would sit on the porch and talk about everything. In the last few months we always call just to check up on each other. Even after your last hospital visit we would talk about how you were getting along. Now this is a heavy blow to my heart. No more calls on our birthday, no more visits when I come to town. I am very proud to have known you as a very dear friend. We always said I love you when we talked and I still love you and will miss you dearly. Rest in peace my friend but I know you are now with your mother father and Terry again.

“ Michael my dear cousin, I am still in shock that you're no longer here with us. We certainly weren't prepared for this. Gone too soon, I'm already missing you, and you know I am still hurting from Terry's passing, and now you're gone too. I feel so lost without you both because of how close we always were, you guys were my cousins, but we have always been more like siblings. So, until we meet again R.I.P. CUZ!
