“ I just heard the horrific news today from April Dawn about the passing of Mike. May God be with him and his family during this difficult time and guide Mike, his family and friends with strength, love, compassion and forgiveness. My heart is filled with sorrow and grief and will always carry the loss of a good friend with me to my end of days. May God be with his loving family and give everyone strength to make it through this difficult time. Mike will truly be missed by myself and everyone he has touched with his Love, Generosity and Friendship. Even though we walked apart for some time, we shared the same path.
