“ My father Kriss Jolly spoke of his family and how he wished he had been able to spend more time with them. He visited his uncle Sam and Bill during the summer when he was a boy. When I spoke to my cousin Nate we spoke of my dad and how his father Nathaniel came to Chicago to visit. I had no idea but and I was hopeful that I would get to meet Nathaniel Jr. as he was having health challenges. He made his transition before we could drive down to Mansfield.
...One of these days we will get to meet and talk about family and good days and brighter days ahead.

*To the Mack family we extend our sincerest condolences.
Know that heaven is rejoicing for another beautiful Starr has finally reached home.*
