“ Mother Berenice Haines, I'm so much to hear about your sorry and we are praying for you and your family in the time of transition. I didn't know Paila very well, I met her about 4 or 5 years ago. She was a very soft spoken person when we talked and had the most beautiful smile. I remember her talking about getting into nursing. I felt she was a very nice young lady. She didn't like everything we talked about but she never disrespected me just answer "I know and I'm trying. I will always remember Paila.
