“ Tricia (Cuz), and I had so many happy moments together growing up. We always joked and make fun of each other as well as everyone else. I didn't realize just how much we depended upon our sense of humor and laughter, as a means of surviving the struggles of life. I was so happy that we had reconnected in our later years. It was just like back in the day. We laughed, we cried, we joked with each other...just like before. I will miss hearing my phone ring and I would say....that must be Cuz. I know that you are still laughing and being silly as usual....up there!

“ Pat and I became inseparable while growing up on Lily St. we share so many memories. One of the fondest memory was us praying cards, We were unbeatable once we teamed up and played the card game spades. I also got to enjoy her southern style cooking while chatting as she cooked fried chicken and homemade potato salad for grandma Stella parties. One of the best cooks I know. So many other great memories 💕💕 R. I. P. Pat Lawhorn 🙏💕
