“ I grew up with Jeff. He was my first love. Not romantically, but like the brother I always wanted. We were great friends from the beginning. I was a complete tomboy and he thought of me as a little sister so we would watch TV together sit and talk and my favorite thing we did the most was wrestle on the ground. I loved thinking I was beating a big boy, but later in years he finally told me, he always let me win to make me feel good. We drifted apart after awhile but I always loved my dear friend. You will be missed Jeff. Love you forever.

“ Uncle Jeff was always a good person. He loved his grandbabies I think more than life it's self. When he was around you could always plan on a good laugh. We weren't as close as some of his other nieces and nephews but I knew he loved me and just a couple days before he left us I got to talk to him and hear him tell me that. I will forever hold that in my thoughts and heart. Tim thought the world of him too. They had a lot of fun fishing together and he would always have him work on his cars and brag about what a mechanic he was. Laughed and called him timberculosis. We will miss you. You won't suffer anymore.

*Love you forever and always

“ Jeff was my baby brother we were the youngest, we played marbles together, he taught me how to fish a North Lake Park, we were always close in a way that most didn't know ,he was a good man ,who loved his family with all his heart, we had our differences but we always stayed close, we always lived close to one another and I look outmt back door and where he lived makes me sad, he always popped in bringing me or my grandchildren something, he was like my twin, I'llmiss him so much, but he's in heaven and nobody can hurt his heart there, until we meet again Jeff, I love you and miss you already... Love Kathy!
