“ I met Thomas 6 years ago on Mansfield public Square. He shared his life story with me. He told me of his struggles with his “demons” shortly thereafter he started attending church services with us. He confessed Jesus as his Lord, but he struggled on. His fight went on through this life and now, no more fighting. Rest peacefully Thomas the battle is over your race is finished.

So sorry to see Stoney pass away. Sad to do the demons win. May he find peace with the Lord and the heavenly gates opened for him. May he Rest In Peace

This is very hard for me to say, I am deeply hurt from the passing away from him, what I love the most about him he was like a teacher, an mentor and most of all that we forget he was a human being. I paid attention when he thought I didn't p.s. miss u much becca
