“Wow! Where do I start? This is really hard for me, Thomas, because I thought you would be here on this earth until you were very old, enjoying life to the fullest. I met you in 1995 and we were together for twenty-one years. There were some ups and downs, but I enjoyed that journey through life getting to know you. I met your daughter (Genna) and thought she was so beautiful with those pretty big eyes, then in our journey we had a daughter (Tasia) and she was the most beautiful, happy and smart baby, I had ever seen. I thank you for her, because without you, she would not be here. Thank you, Thomas for being in her life and my son Brandon's life. I know you were a private person and loved being home watching your sports, listening to music, history and traveling. I will always remember Jamaica, where we got engaged. I know you love your family, even if you didn't get to see them often. I just know you are gone to soon, life is so unpredictable and we are never ready for death, but I will look back at our lifetime of memories together and smile. I know everything has a season and this was your season. I am so glad we remained friends and spent time together before you passed. You will truly be missed, but always in our hearts...Rest In Peace, Love Always, Orangetta

“ My Brother you will truly be missed and loved by others, there's a list of things I could write of you. Your smile said a thousand words, Just to write a memory of you hurts like hell knowing that your not around to see,talk to,give you a hug telling you how happy to see you,my heart hurts, but I hurt for your daughter's more, knowing that they won't see their father,You always been a good brother to me and nevered made me fill like I didn't belong. I will always cherish our talks about life and what I wanted out of life,You taught me alot and I will always be great full for that.You were always a strong believer in the Lord,so there's no doubt about where you are, So Rest up my brother and give that big smile up there to the rest of the family which I know you did.Always in our hearts ❤️ .
