“ Tom, Roosevelt, and Harris/Wallace children/grands/great grands:
Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, may looking back in memories help comfort your tomorrow. Just know you are in cousin Peggy's prayers.

“ To Wallace,

You were one of the strongest men in my life. Even though you your gone now, I still have all of our many memories.. Not only are you my boyfriend's dad. Your my children's PAW PAW. We will always love you .. I'm glad your resting peacefully. No pain, no worries, no confusion, no stressing, no struggling to see through your eyes. Thank you Jesus for allowing him to form a relationship with the Lord so that he could encourage and inform my children about the Lord every time we stopped to visit, or called him on the phone. One of the stories he would always tell me was that "when he found the Lord and committed his self to him he gave up smoking weed and drinking whiskey for entertainment . Instead he would pull out his bible and his magnifying glass and read scriptures. He said here recently he was unable to read his bible even with a magnifying glass so he would turn to the Christian programs on tv and just listen and worship with them. You will forever be missed..

*-Love always
